LUNDGREN ESTATE $10,000—Petition for letters of administration was filed yesterday in the estate of Knut Ludvig Lundgren, who died at Tucson May 15, 1920, by the Phoenix Savings Bank and Trust company. The estate consists of personal property to which the petitioner gives the value of $10,000. The petition will be heard on Monday afternoon, Nov. 1, at 1:30 o'clock.

HUSBAND GETS DIVORCE—On grounds of desertion, Jesus Garcia was granted a decree of divorce yesterday from Marcel G. Garcia by Judge Lyman.

GOV. CAMPBELL IN CITY—Gov. Thomas E. Campbell returned to Phoenix late last night after addressing an enthusiastic crowd at Wickenburg. With the exception of being absent this evening, when he will speak at Buckeye, the governor will be in town all of today and Sunday. He will go to Yuma county early in the week, making speeches at Gadsden, Somerton and Yuma on Monday and in Ajo the following day.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE LAW—Anthony Oliver Buckner was admitted to practice in the courts of Arizona by the supreme court yesterday and will open law offices in Tucson. Mr. Bray was admitted on motion of Alexander Baker and preceded by the supreme court of Georgia.

TO INSPECT TROOP B—Troop B, First cavalry, national guard of Arizona, will be inspected by Lieut. Col. Julien E. Gault, according to word received by Adjutant General Ingalls yesterday in reply to a request for federal inspection. The date of the inspection has not been set. Colonel Gault, who is with the First cavalry stationed at Douglas, also inspected Troop A in this city last spring when it received federal recognition.

TO TALK OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS—Emmet H. Ford of Celina, Ohio, a personal friend of Governor Cox, will be the speaker at the luncheon of the Cox-Roosevelt Woman's club at the Grand cafe today. Mr. Ford will take the league of nations for his subject. Joe Denzer, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph H. Blome, will render several violin selections during the luncheon, which will be served promptly at 12:15 o'clock. Those wishing to make reservations are requested to call Mrs. R. E. McGillen, telephone 2330; Mrs. Grace Yarwood, 3099, or Mrs. A. Henderson Stockton, 8558.

FILES DISSOLUTION PETITION—Petition for involuntary dissolution of the Slobispo Land and Oil company was filed yesterday in the superior court by Anna McKinnon, a stockholder, and J. J. Lipson, her attorney. The petition states the company is a corporation under the Arizona state laws, with headquarters at Phoenix, and that the resolution for its dissolution was adopted by a majority of the stockholders of the company on Aug. 20, 1920. According to the petition, the company has no assets and no outstanding indebtedness. An order was issued by Judge Lyman citing all interested to appear in his court on Nov. 5 at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and show cause why the petition should not be granted.

GO TO TESTIFY—C. H. Bowers, undersheriff, and George Bristow, chief of police, will leave for El Paso, Tex., next Sunday morning, where they will testify as federal witnesses in the case of the United States government against J. R. Montgomery, chief of police at El Paso. The federal charge against Montgomery arises from a transaction in which he is alleged to have taken part in connection with a stolen automobile. The car, according to the records of the sheriff's office in Phoenix show that it was stolen from here on June 2, 1920. The theft was reported by the Barrett & Pottenger company, distributors of the Studebaker automobiles. The car was originally owned by the Pacific Creamery company, and although it had been re-sold several times it still bore the CHARGE IS REDUCED—A charge of grand larceny against E. Brown, colored, yesterday was reduced to a misdemeanor, to which he pleaded guilty before Justice Charles DeSales Wheeler and was fined $50 or 90 days in the county jail. Brown was charged with taking a bicycle from the Donofrio Candy company. The complaint was made by Rocco Donofrio.

TO DISCUSS SCHOOL LAWS—C. O. Case, state superintendent of public instruction, will leave this morning for Prescott where he will hold a conference with Curtis W. Miller, superintendent of schools of Yavapai county, on the matter of school legislation. Another item that will receive attention will be the thrift program, the details of which will be worked out at this time. Mr. Case, who is state director of thrift, will return to the county school superintendents to direct the work in each county.

TO FILE ANSWER IN CONTEST—Interrupting his campaign program, H. E. Ross, Democratic nominee for secretary of state, returned to Phoenix yesterday in the matter of filing an answer to the contest proceeding brought against him by Charles DeSales Wheeler. Mr. Ross stated that the answer to Wheeler's complaint would be filed in the superior court. While here yesterday he also attended a number of matters claiming his attention as state treasurer. He expects to leave this evening for Globe and Miami, where he will continue his campaign.

SUNDAY EVENING CLUB—The league of nations will be discussed pro and con tomorrow night when the Sunday Evening club meets at 7:30 o'clock at K. P. hall. Jack Frank O. Smith will present Republican views on the league, demanding reservations, while E. C. Phelps will take the Democratic side that the league as at present constituted should be entered by the United States.

The irreconcilable stand on the question, that of Senator Borah and his group, opposing any sort of league for this country, will not be taken up, though it is understood that anyone who wishes to support this side of the discussion will be welcomed.

HERE TO VISIT SISTER—Mrs. William Mahoney, wife of the sheriff of Mohave, is in Phoenix for a few days' visit with her sister, Miss Mary Fitzgerald.

REGISTRATION BOOKS CLOSED LAST NIGHT
Registration of voters for the general election closed last night at 12 o'clock with the heaviest registration ever taken in Maricopa county. Miss Edith Jacobs, county recorder, estimated that the number of registrants on the books would exceed the total registration for the general election of two years ago by more than $,000. About 500 voters registered yesterday, bringing the total of voters registered since the primary election to about 4,500. When the books closed for the primary a total of 23,512 voters had registered.

Total figures of the registration for the entire county will not be available for several days, Miss Jacobs said last evening, as the time will be required to enter the blanks taken in the last two days on the books. She estimates that the total number of voters registered will be in the neighborhood of 28,000. The total number registered two years ago was 19,524.

The office of the county recorder was kept open until 12 o'clock last night in order that late registrants might register, and a large number took advantage and registered. Miss Jacobs praised the work of her clerks last night for the hard and efficient work they had done in handling the heavy registration.
